

Upcoming Deadlines

Nov. 21: First-Year Student Course Registration Opens

You will register via NOVO (InsideND) beginning at your appointed time on Monday, November 21.

Your registration time ticket is available in NOVO.

Not able to register for a class you want? Keep in mind that registration will remain open until Jan 8th, which means you can make changes on your own without advisor assistance.

Spring 2023 Registration Advising Meeting Presentations

Nov. 23 - 27: Thanksgiving Holiday

Enjoy a much-deserved time of gratitude and renewal!

Nov 29: Course Instructor Feedback (CIF) begins

The purpose of the CIF system is to help improve teaching so as to enhance students' learning experiences. Your confidential feedback through the CIF on-line survey provides:

- Student Ratings that you and your classmates will be able to view for courses listed within Class Search
- Constructive comments to your instructors on how they might improve their courses in future terms
- Candid assessments of teaching effectiveness that are an essential component to the review and promotion process for each of your professors

Furthermore, students who do not complete all of their CIFs will have delayed access to their grades.

Studying for a Calculus Exam This Week?

Greg Macklem will be available in Room 209 and Room 210 in Remick Family Hall (located between the Main Building and Lewis Hall) to offer support and answer questions at these times:

- Monday, November 14 from 6-9
- Tuesday, November 15 from 7-1
- Wednesday, November 16 from 6-9

- Come alone or with a study group and bring your questions
- Students from multiple classes will be present so this is not a "review session" but rather a space to study, collaborate, and also have someone on hand who can help answer your questions. A limited amount of pizza will also be provided!

From Foundations to Accountancy to Foundations of Theology, the LRC Tutoring Registration Grid has tons of free opportunities for tutoring, resources, and help.

Coming Up: FROM THE COLLEGES

Each edition of FirstYear@ND will summarize portions of the communications offered by Notre Dame's various colleges and schools. For a more comprehensive look at a college or school, check out the news and events posted on their websites!

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
School of Architecture

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

Be sure you register for ARCH 10211 and ARCH 12211 for the spring semester!

This course offers a broad overview of the history of architecture and urbanism from antiquity to the present day. Global in its perspective, the course proceeds chronologically through a series of important historical moments and monuments.

Lectures will be offered twice a week, but students will also meet in smaller groups each week for a discussion section with a teaching assistant, where they may participate actively in conversation about course readings, and engage in workshop activities. This introductory course is designed with both architecture majors and non-majors in mind.

MENDOZA COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

From Bonds to the Bronx: A Conversation about Wall Street

Fri., Nov. 18
4:00 PM
Hesburgh Library Carey Auditorium (Rm. 107)

After abandoning his twenty year Wall Street career, Chris Arnade decided to document poverty and addiction in the Bronx. He began interviewing, photographing, and becoming close friends with homeless addicts, and spent hours in drug dens and McDonald's. Then he started driving across America to see how the rest of the country compared. He found the same types of stories everywhere, across lines of race, ethnicity, religion, and geography.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Picture a Scientist (2020) Film

Thurs., Nov. 17
7:00 PM
Browning Cinema, DeBartolo Performing Arts Center

The College of Engineering invites students to a screening of "Picture a Scientist" followed by a multidisciplinary panel featuring two College of Engineering professors. This documentary chronicles the groundswell of women scientists who are changing the face of science in the United States and around the world. Using dogged research techniques and careful data collection, these women are not only contributing to our understanding of what keeps women scientists down, but advocating for a more diverse and inclusive future for all.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE

Go Ahead, Ask Dean Schnell Anything!

Submit questions to be featured in the "Get to Know the Dean" video!

Dean Schnell doesn't drink coffee, so how in the world does he get going in the morning? Did you know he is an avid tennis player? In 2014 he was a champ in mixed doubles in the Ann Arbor Community Tennis Association. What does he know about hair? One of his first jobs was working at P&G developing Pantene hair care products.

Santiago Schnell has been the William K. Warren Foundation Dean for the College of Science for a year. What would YOU like to know about Dean Schnell? Ask Him Anything!

Coming Up: OTHER OPPOTUNITIES

Submit a portion of your Moreau Integration Two Assignment to the Encounters: A Moreau First Year Project

Encounters is a public archive of personal narratives from first-year students at Notre Dame. The project, born from the Moreau course, seeks to give voice to the first-year student experience, reflecting both the diversity and commonality within this year of transitions. You may remember reading previous stories from Encounters last summer as you prepared for your first year at ND.

Be on the look out for an invitation to submit a portion of your Moreau Integration Two Assignment to be feature as a part of the newest additions to Encounters!
